

Persons for whom the COVID-19 vaccination service is state-paid

Published: 28.05.2021.

The COVID-19 vaccination service is state-paid for the following categories of persons:

citizen of Latvia;

non-citizen of Latvia;

foreigner, who has been granted a permanent residence permit in Latvia;

stateless person, whose status of stateless person has been granted in the Republic of Latvia;

refugee or person, who has been granted the alternative status;

detained person;

asylum seeker;

person, whose health is insured in accordance with the Law "On State Social Insurance" – for example, regardless the type (document) of residence in the Republic of Latvia, employees, for whom social insurance contributions have to be made according to the general procedure, self-employed persons, whose income comprises the minimum amount of the mandatory contributions object determined by the Cabinet of Ministers; person, who presents a decision adopted by the NHS, according to which the person's rights for receiving fully state-paid healthcare services in Latvia are established.

person, who has received S1 form in another European Union Member State, European Economic Area Member State or Switzerland (hereinafter EU Member States) and has registered it with the NHS; officer or employee of European Union institutions, structural units and agencies, and persons maintained by these authorities, who are included in the Common Health Insurance Scheme (employees of BEREK office);

persons, who have been granted a temporary residence permit in Latvia;

full-time international students, studying in Latvia;

employees of foreign diplomatic and consular representative offices, international organizations and their representative offices, who are accredited and residing in Latvia, and their family members.

 Documents that certify the person's status/rights to receive a vaccine against COVID-19

<https://www.vmnvd.gov.lv/en/persons-whom-covid-19-vaccination-service-state-paid>